1. Payment of Fees

International Students

- 1.1. First instalment of tuition fees must be paid in order to obtain a Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) and must be paid no later than the date detailed in the student's offer of placement letter.
- 1.2. A non-refundable enrolment fee is applicable to international students and must be paid in full upon accepting an offer of placement and prior to the commencement of the first term.
- 1.3. With regard to continuing students any tuition fees or other additional fees must be paid no later than the payment dates specified by AIT.
- 1.4. Tuition fees may be subject to change during a student's course of enrolment.
- 1.5. Students can access and are encouraged to regularly review their fee status through their personal profile on JIVI (secured). Students may share their JIVI login details with parents to allow them to view fee, attendance, and assessment results information via the Internet.

Domestic Students

- 1.6 Domestic students who are eligible to defer their fee payments under the VET Student Loan or FEE-HELP schemes must complete and submit their enrolment confirmation application form (eCAF) prior to the census date for their first study block and to confirm their continuing enrolment before the Census date for each term as they progress through their enrolment. Where a student does not meet this requirement, their enrolment may be cancelled.
- 1.7 Domestic students who are full fee-paying are required to pay the full fee in accordance with the terms of their invoice.
- 1.8 Tuition fees may be subject to change during a student's course of enrolment.

2. Overdue Payments

- 2.1. Where a student fails to submit payments within a timeframe set by AIT, the student will be notified and cautioned via the following means in order of listing;
 - 2.1.1. A formal notice of overdue payment will be sent via email to the most current address provided by the student. This notice will state the original due date for the payment, the original amount outstanding and the total amount due inclusive of the additional fee. (It is the student's obligation to ensure that all current contact details are provided to AIT within 5 days of the change coming into effect. AIT accepts no responsibility for a student not receiving this notice where the student has not updated their contact details.)
 - 2.1.2. A reminder notification via the student's jivi account.
 - 2.1.3. A meeting with an AIT Student Services Advisor may be scheduled to discuss the students' circumstances.
- 2.2 Should a student fail to comply with the requirements communicated via means set out in paragraph 2.1, AIT reserves the right to;
 - 2.2.1. Suspend access to AIT facilities (including education platforms), library, lessons, computers, and examinations.
 - 2.2.2. Withhold transcripts, certificates, other documentation, and services.
 - 2.2.3. Suspend the student from studying at AIT within 10 working days of initial notification.
 - 2.2.4. Pursue legal action to recover the debt when necessary.
- 2.3. Where a student experiences difficulty paying tuition fees due to financial hardship, he or she may apply to pay his or her tuition fees under a payment plan. Payment plans may not be offered retrospectively and are not available to commencing students. Subject to the conditional clauses outlined below, AIT may, at its discretion, agree to the establishment of a payment plan provided that;
 - 2.3.1. A written statement is submitted to an AIT Student Services Advisor along with relevant documentation that may be used as evidence of the student's financial hardship.
 - 2.3.2. All terms and conditions of the payment plan are agreed upon by the student in writing.

4. Provider Default

In the unlikely event of default by AIT, a refund of all tuition fees paid on a pro-rata basis within two weeks of the date of default. The student is entitled to receive a statement explaining the refund calculation. Provider default can include the course not starting on the agreed starting day, the course ceasing to be provided at any time after it starts but before it is completed, and the course being discontinued before the students' scheduled completion. This agreement does not remove the right to take further action under Australia's Consumer Protection Laws nor does it prevent the student from pursuing other legal remedies.

5. Use of Student Work and Materials

AIT may at times be required to show or exhibit students' work or submissions to government authorities in order to demonstrate compliance with government requirements. AIT also uses student submissions for marketing purposes in brochures, CDs/DVDs, live demonstrations, official AIT social media channels and other promotional materials and activities. All student work used by AIT will acknowledge that the work is the product of its students. Students of AIT must acknowledge this and agree that AIT may use their submitted work for these purposes.

6. Indemnity and Release

In your application form, you, or your parent / guardian (as appropriate), have signed and agreed to release AIT from all liability to yourself or any other person for any such injury, damage or loss to person or property and from any actions, claim or demands.

This indemnity does not rescind any Duty of Care held by AIT under Australian law if such Duty of Care exists, or if proven that any injury was a result of a breach of a Duty of Care.

7. Privacy Laws and Sharing of Information

AIT and its subsidiary entities comply with Australian Commonwealth laws in relation to Privacy and Data collection as well as the equivalent laws of the UK, EU & USA.

Please go to: <http://www.ait.edu.au/privacy-policy>

8. Disclosure

AIT may pay fees to education agents and may receive referral fees from third-party service providers, in accordance with industry practice.
